Experiencia

Data Timing Specialist

Championship (Chip Timing, S.L.)

nov. de 2022 - actualidad · 5 meses

As a timing specialist for Championship S.L in Catalonia, I am responsible for ensuring the accurate and timely recording of the times for participants in running races. This involves setting up the necessary equipment and software, such as electronic timing mats, race management software and SQL programming language, to track the start, finish, and split times of runners. During the race, I monitor the equipment to ensure it is working correctly and troubleshoot any issues that arise. After the race, I compile the results and distribute them to race officials and participants. Additionally, I may assist in the planning and logistics of the race, such as course design and setting up aid stations. Overall, my role as a timing specialist plays a crucial role in ensuring the success and accuracy of running races organized by Championship S.L.
